
Hartford Republican

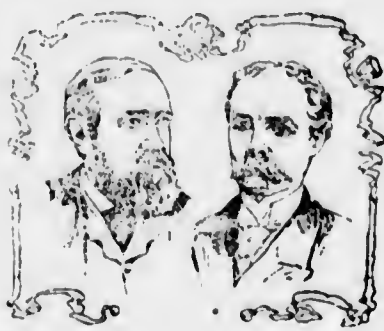

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

J. B. ROGERS, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1892.

We are authorized to announce JOHN C. TOWNSEND
A candidate on the People's Party Platform for Commonwealth's Attorney in the Sixth Judicial District.

Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
Of Indiana.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID,
Of New York.

FOR CONGRESS,
C. M. BARNETT,
Of Ohio County.

FOR CHIEF JUSTICE,
D. L. ADAIR,
Of Hancock County.

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY, E. P. NEAL,
Of Ohio County.

FOR SHERIFF,
CLAYTON L. WOODWARD,
Of Hancock County.

FOR CIRCUIT COURT CLERK,
SEPTIMUS T. STEVENS,
Of Hancock County.

Look at the Eagle.

He's the same proud bird that will adorn the Republican ballot at the coming election.

LONG TEXAS—ON the great English poet, is dead.

WHAT'S the matter with Barnett?
He's all right.

Did you ever see a "sleeved" Democrat? Look at Alex. Montgomery and Jake Rowe.

We suppose the Herald is now convinced that Barnett isn't much afraid of Montgomery.

J. Edlin would hardly go to Frankfort now to get the Little Bend attached, even if his expenses were paid.

WHAT teachers will win the prizes for the largest number of visitors on the day of the Superintendent's visit?

THE chances seem that in Judge McBeath's District composed of Grayson, Breckenridge, Meade and Hardin he will this time be stoned to death.

THE Republican party has always believed in a free ballot and a fair count. There is as much satisfaction for it when these things are in the way of accomplishment by Democrats (as is now the case in Alabama) as when it is Republicans who are accomplishing it.

THE refusal of the Third Party Committee to endorse any candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney leaves Judge Townsend out in the cold. It is now in order for Mr. Rowe to draw in his candidate and try another look on which to catch the Third Party vote—he failed this time.

MR. GEORGE TUCKER CURTIS has been no less distinguished as an authority on constitutional law than he has been a Democrat for many years past. But the tariff plank in the Chicago platform is too much for him, and he announces his debarration not to vote for Cleveland.

SOME Democrat started the report the other day that Secretary Elkins had died suddenly in West Virginia. From the manner in which the Secretary is pushing Democrats in West Virginia from their strongholds, there are doubtless many of them who wish he were dead; but he is not.

THE County Superintendent feels that he is too well known to need any defense from the unjust attack made on him by the Herald of Wednesday, and refers the matter to the conducting the office to the good people of Ohio county, whose servant he is and for whose welfare it is his pleasure to labor.

It comes with very bad grace for the Herald to say anything about the people's interests not being safe in the hands of E. P. Neal as Commonwealth's Attorney. We cannot conceive of an imagination so fertile as to imagine they would be safer in the hands of Jake Rowe, when his unav-ery record is considered.

The Republicans of Wisconsin have overthrown one gerrymander of that State, which has resulted in the election of Wm. F. Vilas to the United States Senate, and are now making a gallant onslaught in the Supreme Court upon a second, which was enacted by the same Democratic Legislature that enacted the first.

CLEVELAND's letter of acceptance is a weak attempt to straddle the great questions now dividing the public mind. He, like his party, has found that Free Trade won't work and is trying to buck down from the advanced position taken on that question in the Chicago platform. The man or the party that so tampers with public confidence is unworthy of the suffrage of the American people.

COL. C. M. BARNETT is growing rapidly in popularity and the Republicans of the 4th District will only do their duty his election is assured.
Let every Republican exert himself from now until the evening of the 8th of November and the old 4th will be redeemed. The Democracy is uneasy.
Mr. Montgomery is scared, and is begging piteously for the Third Party Democrats.

THE best opportunity the Republicans ever had to carry Kentucky is now presented. The Democratic party is completely at sea on all the great National issues. The platform is for Free Trade without reserve; Cleveland's letter of acceptance is for a tariff that will "wage no exterminating war against any American interest;" the masses of the Democratic party are for Free Silver; Cleveland unflinchingly against it; reciprocity is declared a part of Free Trade, and yet it is denounced as a sham. Not only is the National Democracy in a very bad way, but the Democracy of Kentucky is in a predicament equally as shameful and disgusting. An incompetent Legislature is squandering the people's money and the old cry of a poverty-stricken Treasury is hurled into the consideration of a great Commonwealth. With all these advantages the Republicans of Kentucky should feel encouraged to labor as they have never labored before for the redemption of Kentucky from the thrall of Democracy.

THE Democratic platform declares "that the Federal Government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties except for the purpose of revenue only." According to this doctrine, if the Democratic party should gain control of the Government it would be but a short time before this country would be bankrupt.
We say this, because any duty on any article produced in this country is a protective tariff to the extent of said duty, which the Democracy declares is unconstitutional, therefore, if they should undertake to raise the revenue necessary to run the Government without affording any protection to American industries they would have to levy a duty on only such articles as we do not and cannot produce. This being a fact undisputed, and the list of articles we do not produce to some extent, in some parts of our grand country being limited to a very small number, it is plain that our Government under Democratic rule would be forced into bankruptcy in a very short time, or our people would be heavily burdened by a direct tax for the upholding of the obligations of our country. Think of this.

How's This?

We happen to know Mr. Neal has more than a half a dozen law books, with more than a dozen lawsuits, with more books than J. E. Rowe and more practice in Circuit, Quarterly and Inferior Courts than Mr.
Rowe would have if he was not under the favor of E. D. Walker. The Herald says Mr. Neal never prosecuted or defended a man for felony.
How many times did Mr. Ringo defend or prosecute before he became a partner of E. D. Guffy? How many times Mr. Felix before he became the Attorney for the county? How many times J. E. Rowe without the favor of Mr. Walker? The Herald says he (Neal) never had a law office. Mr.
Neal never resided here since he was licensed. But how much of an office would Mr. Rowe have, if by himself?
Mr. Ringo before Mr. Guffy took him in? None. If Mr. Neal has none of these favorable opportunities to win him practice he don't need them, is able to take care of himself, to stand alone, and although not living here, but hard at work, farming 15 miles away, has attracted to himself a client-ing in Circuit, Quarterly and the Inferior Courts around him, of which every man living here, and under more favorable circumstances might well be proud. Let us see what Mr.
Rowe thinks of Mr. Neal's capacity to practice law.

ROCKPORT, Ky., Sept. 28, 1892.
—This is to certify that on the—day of May, 1889, I wanted J. E. Rowe to bring a suit for me in the Ohio Circuit Court against ———— Shek and he was in a state of delirium tremens with his eyes and face pained into a jelly and was unable and unfit to attend to it. He said he would get E.
P. Neal to attend to it for him, assuring me that Mr. Neal would attend to it as well as he could, and Mr.
Neal did kindly favor Mr. Rowe by doing so. M. V. CAMPBELL.

PICNICK, Ky., Sept. 28, 1892.
—This is to certify that on the—day of January 1891, I in company with E. P. Neal passed the residence of J. E.
Rowe and Mrs. Rowe, wife of J. E.
Rowe, stopped Mr. Neal saying she had a letter from Mr. Rowe, saying that if she saw Mr. Neal to tell him to look after his (Mr. Rowe's) law cases and attend to them in his absence, as Mr. Walker was gone.

JOS. H. BARNETT, B. WILSON.
Yours Respectfully,

Milby and Hayward.

Judge W. H. Milby, of Greenburg, had been killed to speak here Wednesday and was promptly on hand. Hon. W. T. Hayward, District Elector, was on hand and asked for a division of time, which was granted. Judge Milby opened in a speech of three quarters of an hour, in the course of which he stated the Republican position on the political issues of the day in a clear, concise speech. He was followed by Mr.
Hayward in an hour's speech in which the usual fallacies of Democratic doctrine were indulged in with great freedom, but without arousing any enthusiasm among the Democratic part of the congregation. Judge Milby followed in half an hour's talk and punctured Mr. Hayward's fallacies and mistakes in a way quite interesting and satisfactory to the Republicans.

A Big Day for Caneyville.

The good Republicans of Caney-ville and surrounding country had a big flag-raising Tuesday. Promptly at 12:30 the stars and stripes were run up to the height of one hundred and twelve feet and under its folds Judge W. H. Milby, of Greenburg; Col. C.
M. Barnett, of Hartford, and Capt.
G. W. Long, of Leitchfield, poured into the Democratic ranks for two hours and a half, great broadsides of Republican truth. It was a great Republican feast and the party was encouraged and strengthened.

Never did speakers have better attention than was extended to these gentlemen by the enthusiastic crowd.
The Republicans of Caneyville deserve great credit for their energetic efforts, and Tuesday's work will only prove another reason why old Grayson will vote for Harrison, Reid and Barnett.

THEY MEET.

The Democratic and Republican Congressional Champions Meet in Joint Discussion.

BARNETT SCORES A BIG VICTORY.

"We have met the enemy and he is ours," was the feeling of every Republican as he left the Court House Monday evening after listening to the discussion between the Hon.
A. B. Montgomery and Col. C. M.
Barnett. Mr. Montgomery had an appointment here for that day and Col. Barnett accepted his invitation to be present.

Mr. Montgomery opened with a speech of one hour and a half, the greater part of which was spent in a vain attempt to whip some of his former adherents out of the Third Party back into the Democratic fold. He pleaded earnestly with them now and ridiculed them then, assuming at different times the role of party boss in his demands of what should be done and then of humble office seeker, begging for votes which he very badly needs. In answering the Third Party cry of more money he stated the great truths of Republican achievement and history step by step, opposed as these achievements were by the Democratic party. He believed in every Third Party principle except two, the sub-treasury and the ownership of railroads, and said that nobody but a Democrat in principle could be a member of the Third Party. He was in favor of the Free and Unlimited Coinage of Silver, although straddled by the Democratic platform and opposed by Cleveland. He tried to blow hot and cold and to get on the foundation of an honest dollar, but it was so weak he was lost in a mass of his own contradictions and absurdities.

Barnett replied and very forcibly let the wind out of Montgomery's Force Bill bubble, showed up the Democratic falsehoods and misrepresentations of the McKinley Bill and its effects, showing that it had resulted in building up the interests of the people and bringing no such dire calamities as predicted by the Democratic party. He called attention to the fact that Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Cleveland were in direct opposition to each other on the Silver question and that the Democratic party had departed from the faith of "the fathers" on the tariff. He showed up in its true light Democratic hyp-ocrisy in regard to pensions and its real hatred toward the old soldiers.

Mr. Montgomery made a very weak reply and everybody realized that Barnett was too much for him and that the cause of Democracy had gained nothing by the combat.

The candidates for District and County offices then took advantage of the opportunity of announcing themselves.

Beaver Dam Roller Mills.

The attention of the public is specially called to the fact that this Mill has just been completed upon the most modern plan, with all the improved appliances for the manufacture of the FINEST FLOUR and other Mill Products. Positively no money has been spared to make it turn out as fine product as any Mill in the STATE.

It has been thoroughly tested, having been run almost every day since its completion and a portion of the time at night to keep up with its orders. Its product has been sold to the best, most scrutinizing and particular trade of the country, and it is with pride that it can point to testimonials from the best makers and many of the very best cooks of the country that it makes the best flour they ever used. For the benefit, convenience and protection of the farmer has this Mill been built, and which will it look for its support.

With proper care Ohio County can produce as good wheat as any and this Mill intends to see that her farmers get the benefit of any efforts they put forth in this direction. The best products of this Mill shall go upon the farmers' table, and if he will favor it with his patronage, and his influence satisfaction will be guaranteed to him.

We have now one of the very best and most experienced millers in the Green River Country, but that no pains may be spared to give the farmer the full benefit of his good wheat crop, we have ordered and are expecting every day an expert miller sent by the builders of our Mill to stay with us during the season. We shall cordially consider it a great favor if every farmer in the County will call on us within the next 60 days and get a sample of our product and our treatment. We want all the FIRST CLASS wheat that is for sale in the County and if you have it to spare, load it up, and we will pay the highest market price for it.

has the greatest amount of insurance of any company doing business in the county. The United States has also paid the largest number of policies representing the largest amount of money. Merit will tell.

Entertainment.

Trustees and patrons of District No.
76, Eminence, Ky., met at the school house Friday afternoon to witness the closing exercise of the first month of the school, which is being taught by Miss Sallie Coleman, of Hartford.
The entertainment was quite good, especially the "hoop drill" and "broon brigade." All the songs, recitations and dialogues were very enjoyable, and the little ones did themselves great credit. We are having a grand school and are proud of the work that is done and of the training which our children are receiving.

A Good Crop.

The most successful farmers are those who prepare best their ground before planting their crops. In many crops the good condition of the ground at planting time is more than half of the tending—with wheat it is all. This crop demands the utmost care in the preparation of the soil both in breaking and enriching. The farmer needs, besides what fertilizer he may gather, a Commercial fertilizer well adapted to his land. Such a fertilizer he can find in abundance in the best Bone Dust ever spread upon a wheat field. He will find this at TAYLOR & CO., Beaver Dam.

Dedication.

Mt. Hermon, the new Methodist Church, South, near Beda, will be dedicated next Sunday by Rev. E. M.
Crawe. The people of the neighborhood will furnish dinner on the ground.

the highest pole in the State.

UNPARALLELED

The Grandest Fair Ever Held in Ohio County Convened at Hartford, Sept.
28th to Oct. 1.

LARGER CROWDS, FINER STOCK.

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week were the biggest four days in the history of Hartford. It was the sixteenth annual meeting of the Ohio County Fair Company and a week of unparalleled success. The weather was dry and beautiful and the track in first-class condition. Stock from other counties had been in training here the whole season, but on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday there was almost an incessant stream of stock pouring into the grounds, so that when the Fair opened Wednesday morning the finest and largest lot of stock ever seen together in Ohio county was ready to enter its contestants for the various premiums.

The largest crowd ever in attendance on a first day was on Land Wednesday, and from day to day the crowds increased until on Saturday the largest crowd ever seen in Harford gathered at the Fair Grounds.
With perhaps one exception it was the largest crowd ever gathered in the county. The young and the old, the rich and the poor, the high society of the city and the country, the gentleman and the lady, the farmer and the mechanic, the student and the laborer, and the whole community were there to witness the grandest display of stock and to enjoy the amusement of the various contests.
And such was the management that not more than two or three accidents occurred and these of little moment.

The Company may well be proud of the success achieved. It is something of which to be proud. Every officer and every member has labored diligently for a big Fair and their efforts were rewarded even beyond their most far-reaching expectations.
Secretary, A. T. Nall, deserves mention for his excellent services. Mr.
D. F. Tracy's labor as Superintendent of Floral Hall was superb—the display being complimented as the richest and most extensive ever seen at an Ohio County Fair. Every officer deserves mention, but space forbids. The broad smile this week on the faces of both the stockholders and officers proves conclusively that it was a big success.

The running and trotting were good and especially the former—several fast horses being on the track. The mule races were unusually full and interesting. The novelty race requiring that the horses walk a quarter, trot a quarter and run a quarter was the hit of the week.

This meeting has done more to establish the Ohio County Fair firmly in the esteem of stockmen generally and of the people of the county than any previous meeting. The people realize that it is for their welfare to patronize such an institution, because it stimulates them to the production of better crops and raising of better stock.

At Leitchfield.

The largest crowd in attendance at a public speaking for years in Leitchfield gathered in the Court House at that place Tuesday night to hear Col.
C. M. Barnett and Judge W. H. Mil-by discuss the political issues of the day. The crowd gathered at 7 o'clock, a great many ladies being in attendance, and the Hall was soon full to overflowing. The stage had been beautifully decorated with flags and flowers by the ladies of Leitchfield and presented a most inspiring appearance for the young orators who were to follow. The great Republican doctrines have not been told more forcibly since the days of Swage than they were told here. The best of order and the greatest enthusiasm pervaded the whole assembly during the three hours discussion.

Anderson's Bazaar.

Some people are always blowing and gassing about how much they sell, and how good trade is with them, etc., but our style is to show the people the goods and let them decide who has the cheapest line in town, and we have enough customers left to enable us to continue business. We defy competition in our line and think we have good reasons for doing so. Our goods are all bought by one of the most successful business men in the State, Mr. S. W. Anderson. Are all bought direct from the factories in the East, and are all bought for spot cash and we sell for as small a profit as anybody. So don't you agree with us that we are in a position to defy competition?

DRESS GOODS

We have a well selected stock of the latest styles, such as Blue Storm Serges, Plain Blue Serges, Cashmeres, Henriettas, &c., and we offer them all at low prices. You should not fail to see this line before you buy.

MILLINERY

As this is one of our favorite lines we feel confident we have the nicest selected stock in town and Miss Sara has the reputation of pleasing everybody and is considered the most stylish trimmer in this section, having had several years experience.

SHOES.

Our reputation on Anderson's Wear-forever Shoes is wide spread and well deserved for we guarantee every pair sold to give entire satisfaction. Our $1.99 Shoe is still a leader in fine wearing goods—have a complete line of them from 2½ to 7.

CARPETS, TRUNKS, & C.

Have you seen the lovely new styles in carpets we have? You should not fail to see them—they are pronounced the nicest in town. Our Trunk line is also complete; can sell you one to suit the times, $2.75 to $10.00. All solid Zinc.

It would require this whole paper for us to mention all the nice things we have to show you, but feel confident you will come to see us soon, bring your family and spend the day in our store—we will take pleasure in showing you our stock.
